For all Kinds of Machinery.

Black Lubricating, Golden Machine, Fine Engine,

For Sale at Wholesale and Retail by

OWEN & MOORE.

DRUGS! DRUGS!

29 Franklin Street (Stand formerly occupied by McCauley & Co.)

Has on hand a complete stock of Drugs, Medicines and Chemicals, Patent Franklin Street, Opposite Fox & Smith's. may grow famous, the pen never, but ergo, it may shine from re-Medicines, Shoulder Braces, Trusses, Sponges, Brushes, Chamois Skins, Perfumery, Fine Soaps, &c.

Special attention will be given to the Compounding of Medicines, and a careful and competent Prescriptionist will be in attendance a S. B. STEWART. March 18, 1882-41

GRANGE

CLARKSVILLE, TENN., Commission Merchants

For the Inspection and Sale of

LEAF TOBACCO.

T. HERNDON Supt'. and Salesman.

W. H. TURNLEY, Soliciting Agent.

Cash advanced on Tobacco in store, or in the hands of responsible farmers and dealers. All Tobacco insured while in store at the expense of owner, except where there is no advance, and then without written orders not to insure.

. ATKINS, Montgomery Co., Tenn., Sec'y FLOWERS, Logan Co., Ky. I, W., JESSUP, Toid Co., Ky. NORTHINGTON, Montgomery Co., Ten.

Hand-Made Boots & Shoes. a pair of their hand-made Boots or Shoes, or leave your order and have them make you a pair. A full line of RUBBER BOOTS AND SHOES. Latest styles in

SOFT AND STIFF HATS

Neck-Ties, Collars, Cuffs and Underwear. Buy the "Rambler," a Patent Shirt, the best thing on the market

In Our Wholesale Department

we can offer special inducements to country merchants.

Respectfully, BOWLING & WILLSON,

Sewance Planing Mill

G. B. WILLSON & CO.,

SASH, DOORS, BLINDS,

And Dealers in

Builders' Material of Every Description. PRICES AS LOW AS THE LOWEST.

Cor. Spring and Commerce Sts., - - Clarksville, Ten.1 Jan. 1, 1880-tf.

Magistrates' Blanks for Sale at this office.

SMALL POX.

case that was here has been quaranteened in the country, and should any more occur they will be promptly disposed of in same way. And when you come to Clarksville, don't forget to call on WILLIAMS, The Sice Man, for First-Class

Shoes, Hats, At Low Down Prices.

He is now receiving a large and elegant stock of Spring and Summer Goods, embracing all the novelties and staple goods in Shoes and Slippers, Soft and Stiff Fur Hats, nobby Straw Hats, Planters' Hats, &c. We also manufacture to order. Repairing neatly done on short notice, and at Low Prices. Give us a trial. Respectfully,

V. L. Williams,

J. B. REYNOLDS.

25 Franklin St., Clarksville.

DRUGGISTS,

To our Friends: Having succeeded Mr. J. F. Warfield in th drug business, we ask of you a share of your patronage.

Respectfully, LOCKERT & REYNOLDS.

JAS. H. SMITH.

C. L. LOCKERT.

Smith, Anderson & Bell, Not long ago we went, in company with our popular cave proprie-

Tobacco Salesmen

Commission Merchants, GRACEY HOUSE

Clarksville, T.enn

Kendrick, Pettus & Co.,

Tobacco Salesmen,

General Commission Merchants. CENTRAL WAREHOUSE.

Cor. Main and Front Streets. - Clarksville, Tenn.

Just Below the New Tobacco Exchange.

All Tobacco in our warehouse in Clarksville, on which advances have been made, will lowed our kind host through a clarksville, on which advances have been made, will be came out from their underground at owners' expense until sold; and all Tobacco received by us at our warehouse a little door in a slender wire screen, lie came out from their underground so deep and narrow, that it can onsolve the beat steamer. Alone so deep and narrow, that it can onsolve the beat steamer. Spray Hall comes next in order, shutting out all intruders from the ball room and took their places in lower through the steamer. Alone should be come the steamer of the steamer of the steamer of the steamer. Alone should be come out from their underground in given the steamer of the steamer. Alone should be come out from their underground beat owners' expense, unless that it can onsolve the steamer of the steamer of the steamer. Alone should be come out from their underground beat steamer of the steamer of the steamer. Alone should be come out from their underground beat steamer of the steamer of the steamer. Alone should be come out from their underground beat steamer of the steamer of t

IKE H. SHELBY

Tobacco Salesman

Commission Merchant, Bailey Warehouse, place in the world for growing of passages cut out standently deep raising of mint," secret number in the earth to walk erect, and thus one can easily go through both

Commerce Street, Near Court House, CLARKSVILLE, TENN.

KEESEE & NORTHINGTON

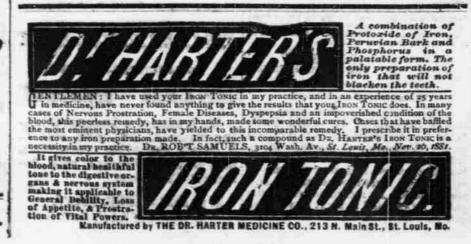

Have a full stock of Feed, such as

Pure Timothy Hay, Clover and Timothy Mixed, Millet, Oats,

Corn, Shelled and in Shuck,

COTTON SEED MEAL,

RICH BRAN. All of which they are selling at bottom prices.

These lines were written by a gifted you girl, of Virginia, who died in a shor the after with typhoid fever. Some hands get so tired of working.

And so bruised in the battless 'In With its ever recurring trials, Some hands get so tired of waiting For the work that seems never to ou Forgetting that waiting in patience Is only God's work for some,

The burdens that others impose, And have lost all count of their sorr In grief for another's woes. Some hands seem made for soothing The pain in their fellows breast. But oh, they get so tired, so tired! That sometimes they long for rest And the rest is coming swiftly For all their tired hands,

The rest that knows no ending The rest that God command Then let us be steadfastly working, Or waiting, if God sees best, And patiently bearing our burdens Till we gain that promised rest.

Some hands get so tired of lifting

Its Beauties, Curiosities and Many

mances Brought to Light. So much has been written and said of Mamonth cave in Kentucky it is surprising that attention has not been called to our own treasure trove, which lies outside the town, through the medium of the press. However, as this has not been done, it has fallen by a thread of chance to my humble pen to point out its may grow famous, the pen never, it, and giving a sudden wrench, flectant spendor, and if so I shall be content. In baring to the public gaze this spot so endeared to the young and old of Montgomery county. I am aware of the sacred ground upon which I am treading, but shall endeavor to step lightly over all the pet spots, where love's young dream has been whispered, mystic rites celebrated and mint you keep them for me. Not long ago we went, in compator, Mr. J. Rice, and his estimable and explore its subteranean chambers. After a charming drive on a bright spring morning we arrived at our destination and made preparations to enter it. Not hav-I was yet wonderfully impressed and delighted with the grand semicircle of rock ouerhung with mosses and vines which make a stately canopy over the mouth of the cave. There can be no finer entrance way than is this in the world, and to his fact alone should our cavern become famous were there nothing else to commend it. But where ean a more delightful summer redown some steps cut in the floor, about them now-a-days, we stopped in front of a great rock, From the Ball Room a narrow the side next us. "Go in," said our here let me remark, the vast imand artistic one, the kind hand of this Hall. Formerly it could only room with an arching roof and good dependence Hall, to my mind one spot as his retreat. Arming himsomething marvelous in this wide fully curving roof, and a solid rock auditorium. Suppose we invite floor. Near the center stands an Mr. Thomas down. He would immense stalagmite eight feet cave, and found him in his Indian enjoy it, for on one side of the room | through, the largest known in the passage called the Grand Rotunda, rious figures of rock, called the leads the way ir to a dismal cham- "happy family," the figure of a ber called the Society Hall. On the man, woman, and child, The poise way, however, is Relay House of the figures and garments of the called the Indian Hut, a round, trio, being remarkably fine; crouchdark hole of whose use I shall pres- ed down on a rock near these is a ently enlighten you, as we will pro- petrified coon, which is a very fair and here soon the gallant Pythian away from these and back of the in its precincts. Knights intend to celebrate their great stalagmite is a row of colgladiatorial sports. Like the Ro- umnes, than which there can be no gorgeous banquet for feasting and and there one has fallen and lies down to Peterson's Leap. Every be used as a store house for the elements. nightingales tongue, peacocks breast Within this room are three pools and vines, in the roof of the cave, blood needs parifying, the cheapest and ruby liquids with which they of water which look like silver are to be washed down. It is dark- breast-plates in the faint torch below 45 feet down, but not every local partitions, and the root of the cave, blood needs partiting, the cheapest ingredients, says: There is no other remedy in existence so harmless and are to be washed down. It is dark- breast-plates in the faint torch below, 45 feet deep; but not every ly hinted that the prize fighter, a lights. One of these is called the one is award of the fact that Mr young and slender attorney of our Ice Pond, from the strange appear- Pete Johnson did the same thing, in months to recover in. - Boston Globe. city has in the heat of excitement ance of its waters, this seeming to trying like the fox to taste their flagone so far as to clash swords with a be frozen half way over, and sheet- vor. In this instance they certainly chief of the Mystic Crewe to try his ed with clear, inredescent ice. The proved "sour grapes," as he can tes. to Ayer's Hair Vigor the foremost strength to every function of the or metal, but on account of his extreme other ones are called with an eye to tify. A few feet away from this place among Hair Restoratives. It is gains of life. Its action is so very mild youth, numerous victims and rush the eternal fitness of things "Solopit is another, called the Lover's harmless. It makes the hair fresh and and relapse, neither will its discontinuous propriet in the eternal fitness of things "Solopit is another, called the Lover's harmless. It makes the hair fresh and and relapse, neither will its discontinuous propriet in the eternal fitness of things "Solopit is another, called the Lover's harmless. It makes the hair fresh and and relapse, neither will its discontinuous propriet in the eternal fitness of things "Solopit is another, called the Lover's harmless."

room just fitted for the mazes of the looking they entered the cave and was for himself. to-day does him honor. Once upon a time, and a long time ago too, he went out to the cave with Sallie Ann in a spring wagon to a brandance. Now Sallie dearly, but Sam, on account of his feet, would never try anything save the pigeon wing or double shuffle, and consequently had never danced in public. Sallie knew this but was determined that he should learn in spite of himself, and when the music struck up the prompters called lustily out, "Select your partners for the quadrille," Sallie grabbed him by the coat and told him to wonders. The cave, perchance, come on. Sam flatly refused to do tore his coatout of Sallie's grasp and fled like a frightened deer to the concealed himself in the Bar Room, and waited in breathless suspense for his pursuer. Sallie was a resolute young woman, and had no idea of letting her "beau" escape her in this fashion, so catching up a tallow in the Bar Room and forget them." exuberance of his joy reached round hours later when a party of the and took a bottle out of his coat tail, young lawyers having missed their took a "long pull and a strong pull" leaders came in search of them, at it and then executed his double they found the gentlemen clasped wife, to spend a day at Dunbar's shuffle. The sound of his big feet in each others arms, their shirtupon the rocky floor so startled fronts deluged in tears, and these Sallie that she suddenly turned and two pools at their feet, testifying to

"Lands alive, Sam Caldwell, ain't been here in three years, and in the you ashamed of yourself to be a tice by myself and then I was a all have laughed at me cause I dunno nothing about this here new fangled thing they call the mandrill, and ain't a goin' to try it

"Sam," said Sallie almost melted sort be found? Surrounded as it is to tears by his evident distress, by lovely forest trees and woodland "come along to the Ball Room and retreats, wild flowers and rippling I will learn you," and Sam deligtwaters, it is an enchanting spot, ed at her return to good humor, and if in a Northern State would slipped the bottle in its former be to the Yankee tourist a slice out resting place, gathered the candle would build themselves pretty and proceeded to the Bail Room. little cottages upon the level below Once there, he stuck the candle in the cave, club together and build a a cleft of the rock, and under Salfine hotel for visitors who would lie's tuition began slowly to balsurely flock to see the curiosities, ance, bow and promenade. The we followed our kind host through | Caldwell, Esq. When he and Salaid of lighted candles to view the happy old days, wan't they Squire, beg of all to visit it, since there is to a double cone at the top. Out of solid save for a small opening in cut leads into Relief Hall, and just guide, "for this is the Bar Room." provement Mr. Rice has made in We did so and found it a perfect the passages leading to and from nature having arranged convenient be reached by crouching upon the shelves and crevices for the setting hands and knees, and, only by the for the making of the afore said could the most beautiful portion of which has the added charms of rojulips. Judge Scales gives it as his the cave, which lies beyond this honest opinion that "it is the finest point, be reached. Mr. Rice has had place in the world for growing or passages cut out sufficiently deep one can easily go through both From the Bar Room we passed crawling places now. From Relief into the Music Hall, a fine, large Hall we go by easy stages into Indred instruments play would be about two acres, and has a beauti-runs a wide and deep stream into world. Its peculiar form, fretted which he could quietly pitch any surface, and immense size makes it miserable beggar of a cornet player | an object of peculiar interest to geolwho dared to make a falsetto note ogists, and if only known they would flock to see it. In front of From the Music Hall a winding this monster stalagmite are three cumans of old they are preparing a finer in Mammoth Cave. Here through the passage which leads received with open arms by the nently in the lives of our two great the scene of a heart rending tragedy, fashionable brotherhood since, and the banquet legal Solomon, and to prove my deep In Gen. Quaries' courting days he Entron of Chronic Le:-At | held in his honor. It is proposed interest in them, and this important was enamored of a Miss Jemima meeting of the Low-tox executive to confer upon him on this occasion discovery will tell the story. Years Brown, and as is usual in such cases, Committee of Montgomery county, a new and high degree, so that ago before either of them had been there was another Richmond in the on the 25th ult., I was instructed by there will be seen many curious to Congress, Col. House and Col. field, this time in the person of a resolution to furnish the Clarks ville bundles containing secret parapher- Bailey went out to the cave with a Circuit Judge. In spite of all the papers the following as a part of nalia for the order, misks and blue party of young lawyers for a little General could do, he could nover said Committee's action, for public lights, sulphurous odors and imple- recreation. After sitting around bring Miss Jemima to the point of cation : certain to leave in this u. Jerground that they must have a quiet little after many plans which she liked best, and. For the purpose of harmonizing chamber various sparks to tell of game of "draw" and that 'twould failure, he hit upon one which he in the Democratic party, we have rites by which the curious will be never do to try it before the young- felt sure would bring the obdurate this day-following the examples er fry. Accordingly they proposed young lady to reason, and make her set in other countles-offered the Leaving Society Hall we enter to go in the cave, and have it out. tell her preference, which, the Gen- olive branch of peace and harmony the Ball Room, a large and elegant So slipping slyly off when none was eral never for one moment doubted to the regular Committee, by pro-

"dance" as whirled and circled started for Independence Hall, this He therefore proposed a grand call a Convention of all Democrats. through by Mr. Oscar Wilde, the being the spot decided upon by excursion to the cave, and, got up a This being refused, this Committee poet. And did you know it, it was both gentlemen, since both were merry party for the occasion. At Is called on to determine whether it here that Squire Caldwell learned fond of the name and quality, the appointed time all gathered will call a Low-tax Convention or to "trip the fantastic," which even On getting to the Bar Room, Col. promptly, and started in with the waiving minor questions recom-House, who persisted in carrying General and Miss Jemima at their mend our wing of the party to join the matches and candles, knowing head. On getting to Relief Hall, in and participate with the other from experience how careless Col. the Gen. proposed to rest, and all wing of the party in the Mass Con-Bailey was, and that he would consented and stopped there. The vention called to assemble in Clarksprobably lay them down and for- General, by slow and easy stages, ville on the first Monday in June. was a first-rate dancer and loved it get them' proposed that they stop went with Miss Jemima a little fur- Believing that the interest and for a little refreshment and each ther, until he reached Lover's Leap. welfare of the State demand a union taking a mild and harmless glass of "Now Miss Jemima," said the of all Democrats in redeeming Tenginger ale they proceeded to their General, in a trembling voice, "I nessee from Republicanism, we in the rock they sat down near the earth has no lovlier flower or heav- Committee, and recommend all great boulder and were soon deeply en no brighter star than thou art. Low-tax voters to forget or sacriabsorbed in the game. The gentle- Oh, I would climb the empyrean fice past differences and Join in the matches, House, and let's have a falling on his knees beside her. ment and no light appeared, the sayest not that thou lovest me, I mouth of the cave. Rushing, in he gallant Col. Bailey jumped up in shalt leap into this bottomless pit wild Suwanee, through the Allensgreat alarm and anxiously inquired just before thee and be forever lost ville Gazette, contributes the folwhat was the matter, "By the to thee, say quickly."

bones of the Prophet, Bailey, I "If I am to say quickly, then Bil- M. Blackman's Grape-Vine Historhaven't got a single match, I laid ly," said Miss Jemima almost con- ical Society: the candles and matches on a shelf dip she lighted it, and slowly felt her way into the cave. Sam tremble and imprecations and wailing came from another quarter julips imbibed; and if I betray any bling in his dark corner, saw her bling in his dark corner, saw her where Col. Bailey stood. Four that," stumble past his retreat, and in the where Col. Bailey stood. Four that,' the overflow of grief. Ah! Cols. Cols. "When the cat's away the been here in three years, and in the meantime having visited the most runnin' off from me jest as the fidmeantime having visited the most celebrated caves in the world, viz, those at the Giant's Causeway, in Ireland, and Fingal's, at Stafford, I was yet wonderfully impressed of the state of the America. 'Fo de dies is a striking up, and every gal ous smaller caves branch off, some of which are of great beauty. One of these is called Diamond Grotto, and upon entering, one is dazzled all go home and tell it on you?"

I was yet wonderfully impressed ous find the America. 'Fo de dies is a striking up, and every gal ous smaller caves branch off, some of which are of great beauty. One of these is called Diamond Grotto, and upon entering, one is dazzled all go home and tell it on you?"

I was yet wonderfully impressed ous find the America. 'Fo de dies is a striking up, and every gal ous smaller caves branch off, some of which are of great beauty. One of these is called Diamond Grotto, and upon entering, one is dazzled all go home and tell it on you?" "Sallie," said Sam sheepishly, "I and bewildered by its brilliant his marvelous escape, the young jest come in here for a leetle prac- splendor. Thousands of crystals lady burst into peals of laughter hang from its walls, and glitter like which drew the others of the party goin' to git you. The fellers would gems of the purest ray. Long, slen- to the spot, and all beheld the Gender and exquisitely graceful stalace eral's discomfiture. tites seem swaying in the cavern breeze, while a tiny drop of water hangs quivering upon the point of each, and ever and anon falls with a musical tinkle upon the rocky floor. With uplifted eyes and partchance, for elves and Culpies. Near its roof and sides are covered with much easier to get in than out. of Paradise. He and all his friends in one hand and Sallie in the other, the most beautiful stalactites, which and thus reap a golden harvest shuffle and pigeon wing would on one side of the grotto, near a sending a guide to the top of it with year after year. Why can we not creep in spite of all Sallie could do rocky ledge just under a fairy cano- a large torch. It is fifty feet high do this also, dear friends? But I at first, and he would tread on his py of lotus leaves, we see glints of above the level of the creek, which am here speculating upon the ways own toes, but after a while he white shine now and then through has its source in the base of this and means of our Northern brothers | caught the thing, and if you wanted | these as did the famous lilies of the | mountain, and is over a hundred and failing to enter the cave; but to find the happiest man in the world Nile in the rosy light of Cicopatra's feet deep, and very difficult of achaving duly admired the outside, that day it would have been Samuel pleasure barge, as it floated at cess. The exploring party had to midnight through their starry splen- pull a canoe over the mountain to a little door in a slender wire screen, lie came out from their underground dor. The entrance to this grotto is get it into the head-waters. entrance, and proceeded with the the quadrill. Ah, those were ly be entered feet foremost, but I and is about 20 feet at base, running tire from the vain pomps and van- stream at the bottom. ities of the world and chose this tired, and remained in seclusion for three days. His heart-broken friends finally traced him to the wax and leather, in the interim. They easily pursuaded him that the world was worth living-for, if there was disappointment in it, and he came out to its sunshine once more. He immediately went to dealing in provisions, however, and has remained an interesting mi-ceed to the description of Society representation, while further on in a Dismat Cave, because our county Summer, and make it a fashionable Hall. This room is shaped some- pedestal rests a petrified monkey, candidates retire there, to meditate Summer resort, we need just such a thing like the Colescum at Rome, This is by far the best of the five and imprecate when defeated for spot in the heated term, and if we and has seats running around it in figures since the face is as perfect as office; and the last cave near this is only had cottages or hotels, would, said: to this underground amphitheater can be guarded by a single man the missing link would. A little true Coleseum style. The entrance at living one, and grins at one as Jennie's venture, so named because without doubt, have them well can be guarded by a single man the missing link would. A fittle only female who has ever set foot do what we can to make it a hab-

We now retrace our steps, until we get to Relief Hall, and then go revelry, and the Indian Hut will like a giant felled by the war of the one is familiar with this story, how Peterson in admiring the grapes destination. Sticking the candle have loved you long and dearly- waive the disrespect shown this men played on and on until the heights or go down to the subterra- Mass meeting called by the State candles suddenly went out, "Holy nean vaults of earth for thee, and credit Committee for the purpose of Moses," cried Col. Bailey, "just in yet thou art so cruel; Oh, Jemima! sending delegates to the State Cona full hand too, get out those wilt thou not relent and be mine?" vention. light, quick." Then as Col. House "oh, wilt thou drive thine faithful seemed in a high state of excite- William to destruction? if thou > vulsed with laughter, "I say get up from there and don't make a goose took place; Miss Jemima having a And that hind-wheel canoedlement good deal of nerve and courage coolly went to the dark brink and holding her tallow dip over the pit es-

He got out amid shouts of laughter a sadder and a wiser man, ac-

Near this spot is a rough and rugged lips we stand breathless in this ed mountain of rock, called Rocky enchanted cavern, a home, per- Mountain. Many huge boulders are this grotto is another called very is a cave about a mile long, named properly, the Egyptian Grotto, since The Devil's Den, because it is so

We come now to the New Rocky hang down in great clusters, very Mountain, the grandest thing in like the branches of feathery palm the cave. It is composed of such large masses of stone that ladies Ascending a ladder which stands rarely visit it, and is best shown by interior. Going a short distance though you don't tell anything nothing like it, to my mind, else- the top of one of these cones just 45 resistance of his three prisoners he interior. where. Near this marvelous grotto, feet high, is a small spray which is a spring, called Elephant Spring, falling about 25 feet strikes a rock, pulled over the valuable prize. On because the figure of a stone ele- and is beaten into spray. From W. Cheeseman, Venus, and the tinphant guards the entrance. The this hall was taken a beautiful and clad gunboat 55 + Undine. This spring is thought very pretty, but perfect specimen of sea coral, now vessel was made a Confederate is very difficult to approach. A in possession of the South-western cruiser and was turned over, by a pathway leads from this point to a Presbyterian University. There complimentary order, to the comminor cave, in which is a round are many other caverns, all novel hole under the rock, in imitation of and beautiful, but rarely visited ex-the snow hut of an Esquimaux, cept by the enthusiastic lovers of the d-n Yankees h-ll!" The final mance. In the spring-time of Capt. the Bottomless Pit, has never been Cushman's life he had an affaire de explored, no one being found with coeur, which castle in the air result- nerve enough to try it. It is of im- toric. His last military steamboated in smoke. The disappointment mense depth, between perpendicuing was done at Cumberland City, was so hitter that he decided to rewas so bitter that he decided to re- lar masses of limestone with a Thos. E. Tutt, Ben. South and

This entire cave, with its numerous smaller ones, has never been echoing powers. One of Theodore of the most curious and interesting echoing powers. One of Theodore of the most curious and interesting "The Sorrows of Werther" he re-After we had seen many of its beauties and were fully satisfied of its in regular gipsy style, in the mouth oft-repeated dun for an unpaid-for hut, minus, his candies, and one of the cave. We were joined in suit of clothes. He gave a boy ten boot top. Nothing so vulgar as food this by two nice young men, who boot top. Nothing so vulgar as food had crossed his mind upon entering, and he had been forced to discovery at first we took to be straggling to the destination of each. drummers, but soon found to be the but we made a most ample apology by spreading out our dinner.

day, and came home in the afternoon, determined to use all endeavors to make "Dunbar's of our's" famous, if possible. Let the people Next this cave is another, called of Montgomery go in crowds this go to thunder! itable place.

From the Hub.

There is perhaps no tonic offered to the people that possesses as much real trinsic value as the Hop Bitters. Just at this season of the year, when the stomach needs an appetizer, or the of cure; don't wait until you are prostrated by a disease that may take posing to join sald Committee and

B. R. BURCHETT, Sec'y. Capt. Frank P. Gracey.

Buz, the ancient mariner of the lowing biographical sketch to O. Dock Gracey now a prominent citizen of Carksville, was born ful woman in Southern Kentucky. In complimentary honor of his sor the General, "I go to my death," he named the bully Julien Gracey, And with that he gave a jump and landed about ten feet below her in this paper. His own name was proudly worn by one of the best a pile of straw. One little thing the steamboats that ever turned a General hadn't counted upon now wheel in the Cumberland river. he named after his brother Mati made a heap of money if she was too slow to work before oxen. Frank manager of several steamboats, Not having been down thar myself about the Captain's military ex-ploits in the Sufferin' Confectionary, but I do know that he played sol dier for three years, first as a Lieutenant, then as Captain of Cobb's Kentucky Battery. In 1861 at Johnsonville, he was ordered by Gen. Forrest to go into the steamyou bet. His first prize was the Mazeppa and her barge, both heavily laden with supplies for the Federal army. A shell from Morton's battery having disabled this transside of the Tennessee river, and her crew, with the exception of three

A Mistake was Made.

slippers, and he acknowledged the

It was a boy with a freckled face and he discharged his errand in a The young lady received a note All in all we spent a delightful and flew to her room to devour its with eager fingers, and read; "I'm getting tired of your everlasting attentions. The suit is about worn out already. It never did amount to much anyway. Please And the tailor was struck utterly dumb when he opened a parcel and discovered the picture of his delin-alled around that eveni ceive the happy acknowledgement of his sweetheart, he was ostentatiously shoved off the steps by the young lady's father. A Physician's Opinion.

A physician, writing to the Journal of health, in speaking of Brown's Iron Bitters, having earefully analyzed its remedy in existence so harmless and yet so effective. No other compound should ever be used for general ill-health and chronic diseases of the pulmonary, digestive and urinary organs It is mild, yet sure in its action, and of blood to the brain, he has been mons' Pools." They figure promition and old age scarce and unrenewal of past disorders,